Bellevue Cadillac

Bellevue Cadillac is not your average band. Bellevue Cadillac is a multi-generational musical experience filled with joy, wonder, comedy, audience participation and the zaniest stage show currently on tour!

Imagine Cab Calloway, James Brown, Barry White, Sam and Dave, Lyle Lovett, Brian Setzer, Garth Brooks, and Steve Martin complete with flying trombones, spinning trumpets, and sizzling saxophones leaping off the stage and dancing with the crowd! Everybody gets a seat in the back of this big Cadillac as it cruises from 20's Hot Jazz to New Orleans R&B, up through the delta blues into Kansas City jump and the swing era of the 30's and 40's.

Next stop 50's R&B, Stax, Muscle Shoals, and Memphis. Take Route 66 on up to Philly Soul, a little Doo Wop and on to New York City for a wild night in Harlem. All aboard for Motown and points west, Hollywood swingin' and California Surf, a little Java Jive and way down south for some Calypso and Latin Soul. Bellevue Cadillac is Jazz, Gospel, Blues, and Soul, Swing on top of Rock and Roll. Whew!

Wildly original yet familiar, the Bellevue Cadillac is the best vehicle for this once in a lifetime road trip. Like a Cadillac, the Bellevue experience is a big luxurious powerful ride through America's rich history of cars and rock n' roll, together they make it a musical experience you'll never forget.

THE PROFESSOR.

Bellevue Cadillac Then to Now

1996 saw the Bellevue Cadillac's debut album Black and White voted one of the 100 best album covers of the year. Also in 1996 they wrote and produced the current theme song for the Handy Award Winning WBOS Blues show "Blues on Sunday". By 1997 Bellevue's popularity and demand was so sought after they were asked to perform at JFK Jr's and Carolyn Bessette's Wedding. In 1999 Bellevue was nominated for the Boston Music Awards and performed at the MLB All-Star Game at Fenway Park, Boston. The following year Bellevue was once again nominated for the Boston Music Awards setting in stone their place in Boston music history. 2001 saw further national recognition with four Bellevue singles hitting the national Internet charts- Prozac (6), Goes Around (8) Call of the Wild (11) and Pull the Plug (16). Also in 2001 Bellevue's tenor and bass players were voted the top players in the country for their style.
